[XXIVth YEAR.] THE [Nº. 1243.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, JULY 6, 1769.

From the POLITICAL REGISTER, for April, 1769.

Account of the Proceedings at the King's-Arms Tavern in Cornhill, pursuant to an Advertisement inviting the Merchants, Traders, and principal Inhabitants of the City of London, to meet there on Wednesday the First of March, to consider of an Address to be presented to his Majesty.

WEDNESDAY, March 1.

AT a Meeting intended for the Gentlemen, Merchants, and Traders of the City of London, held at the King's-Arms in Cornhill, and convened not only by Letter particularly addressed to some chosen Persons, but by public Advertisement; about Thirty Gentlemen met, when Edmund Boehm, Esq; took the Chair. A Variety of Opinions were started. Much Confusion prevailed among the Gentlemen. Nothing was concluded but to adjourn that Meeting 'til next Wednesday, and then to consider if any Thing, and what should be done.

On this Occasion the following Speech it is said was addressed to the Chairman, by a Gentleman unknown, who retired as soon as he had concluded it.

SIR,

FROM the Pains which some Gentlemen have taken, and from the declared Purpose of the Invitation we have received, I expected to have found a much more numerous Assembly in this Place. The Appearance of a large Number of Gentlemen, let the Occasion be what it may, carries with it an Air of Importance, and though it is not sufficient to make their Proceedings either wise or respectable, it gives them the Sanction of Authority. I fear it will be found, upon Examination, that the Reasons of calling us together have been as little considered, as the Means of doing it with Credit and Success. It is so hasty and ill-concerted a Measure, that I am convinced it must be Ministerial; and that instead of answering its pretended Purpose of a Demonstration of Respect and Attachment to the Th—ne, it will furnish a most humiliating Proof, how little that declared Intention is regarded by the Public. But since we are assembled, it seems very proper for us to consider the Grounds and Pretences of this extraordinary Summons, that if they shall appear unjustifiable, or absurd, we may at least avoid being made a Second Time ridiculous in the Eyes of our Fellow Citizens.

If I am not mistaken then, it is meant, in the First Place, to present an Address to our most gracious Sovereign, full of general Assurances of Duty and Affection to his sacred Person and Family. We are then to express our Abhorrence of certain factious Proceedings, and the Authors of them, by which his Government has for a considerable Time past been disturbed; and particularly to declare our Disapprobation of certain Meetings and public Associations, by which, we apprehend, the above Proceedings are supported. Now, Sir, if our Address were to be confined to a few unmeaning Compliments to the Th—ne, no Objection could possibly be raised against it: The present Occasion is as proper as any other; and if this were all, we might find the Business ready done to our Hands, in any one of the loyal Addresses which have been presented to his M———y's royal Predecessors, from James the Second to the Commencement of the present most auspicious Reign. No Man feels greater Pleasure than I do, in being able to separate the personal Character of the best of Princes from the Administration of his Government; and, indeed, to what a desperate Condition would this Country be reduced, if those Objects were so united, that a loyal and affectionate People could not distinguish between them. In this View, then, our Address would be perfectly unexceptionable. It would be harmless, because it would be insignificant. But if, as we have too much Reason to suspect, it be meant to pay a Compliment to the present Ministry, we should previously enquire what Part of their Conduct deserves it. If that Enquiry should not turn out to their Advantage, to what End should we take upon us to contradict the general Voice and Sense of the Nation, but to make ourselves the Objects of universal Contempt?———

Is there a Man among us so corrupted, or so shameless, as to affirm that there is either Ability or Integrity in the present Administration? If there be, let him stand forth; let us know him; let the Public know him——let him be marked out for the perpetual Scorn and Derision of his Country.

As to these Foreign Gentlemen, who appear so zealous for the Laws and Constitution of Great-Britain, I hope and believe they have a proper Sense of the Benefits they enjoy under both; but I think it would be more modest in them to leave the Care of these Matters to the Natives of the Country. We may at least be presumed to understand our own Affairs best, nor is it very decent for Strangers to offer us their Advice, or Assistance, before they are called upon. As to their own particular Sentiments, I have no Objection to their laying them at the Feet of the Ministry, provided they do it in their own Language:——If they would do Justice to their Delicacy on this touching Occasion, they must unite the melting Softness of low Dutch with the natural unaffected Sublimity of high German.

If, in the Second Part of our Address, we mean no more than a general Declaration of our Abhorrence of Faction, I shall only say, that the Design, though innocent enough, is too trifling and impertinent to justify this extraordinary Measure. But if we propose to give the Name of Faction to the present universal and well founded Discontent, let us consider a little, what Right we have, and how far it will be prudent in us, to set the Opinions of a few very inconsiderable Individuals, in Opposition to the united Voice of the whole People. If this be a Faction, I hope it will be found too strong for either Court or Ministry to resist. We shall be laughed at by the Public, and even the Ministry, who now set us on, will disown us.

But it seems there is a certain factious Meeting at the London-Tavern, which it becomes us to oppose, by a Counter-Meeting at the King's-Arms. Admitting the Necessity of this judicious Measure, let us, at least, endeavour to carry it through with Consistence; and, if we truly mean to oppose their Proceedings, let us begin with declaring our Abhorrence of their Principles. They profess that their Design is to support the Bill of Rights;—let us declare, that our Wishes and Designs are of a very different Nature. Their Declaration that they are independent of all Party, will naturally lead us to confess, that most of us are the Tools of the Ministry; and, as to what they say of the Liberty of the Subject, it will be hard if we cannot answer it with the Prerogative of the Crown.

There is one Article, in which, I believe, the Ministry would be glad to see us follow the Example of the other Assembly;—A Countribution ever so small, would be a seasonable Relief to them.—Whatever Use they may put our Address to, we may be very sure they will receive our Money with Respect. This will be at once the most acceptable Proof of our Loyalty, and an unquestionable Pledge of our Sincerity. Without some such collateral Evidence, I greatly fear that we shall neither be thanked for our Address, nor will any sober Man believe, that the Authors of this insignificant, of this absurd, and impertinent Project, could possibly be in earnest.

LONDON, April 16.

WE are informed, that during the Altercation among the Ladies at Bath, some Secrets were discovered by the contending Parties, that are likely to be attended with disagreeable Consequences, especially in Respect to one Lady who was positively charged with a faux pas previous to her Marriage, which the Husband thinks of so seriously, that if the Matter is not soon declared to his Satisfaction, a Separation is resolved on. It is added, that some of the Ladies lost their Temper so greatly, as to descend to mere Billingsgate Language, such as to call their Antagonists B———s and W———s.

A Gentleman from Bath confirms the News of the Riot among the Belles and Beaux; and gives us the following farther Particulars: It began first upon Mr. Plomer's ordering a Bench to be set for some Ladies who came in late, before another that was full. The Hon. Mrs. O. a warm Friend of Major Brereton, insisted, if it was put before her, she should sit upon it; upon which one of the Ladies, for whom it was brought pushed her off, and this insult was returned by Mrs. O. with a back-handed Blow on the Head, that brought her Antagonist to the Floor; and then began the dreadful Conflict: The Gentlemen (who wear no Swords at Bath) fell to fifty Cuffs, the Ladies to pulling one another's Caps, so that the Floor was presently covered with Bags and Solitaires, laced Ruffles, Ladies Caps, Toupees, &c. Many Ladies fainted away, some turned sick and puked upon their Neighbours; in short, such a Scene of Confusion is never remembered to have been exhibited by so genteel a Company before. The Magistrates were engaged at the Town-Hall for some Hours afterwards, in taking Informations of Assault and Battery.

A Correspondent informs us, that the Disputes at Bath, concerning the Succession to the Office of Master of the Ceremonies, are at length happily concluded. Captain Wade is unanimously elected. Five Hundred Pounds of the Surplus of the Ball Subscription for the present Season is allowed to Major Brereton; and Mrs. Brereton is appointed a Benefit-Ball every Season, which Captain Wade obliges himself to make equal to 200l. per Annum, if the Receipts of the Night should fall short of that Sum. The Ball Subscription is settled for the future at Three-Guineas, instead of Two: The Guinea extraordinary, to be applied to the Use of the Master of the Ceremonies.

April 17. A certain patriotic Gentleman, possessed of 18,000 per Annum in Wales, who was confined to his Bed by the Gout, ordered himself to be dressed, was put into his Carriage, and polled at Brentford for Mr. Wilkes.

April 19. A Wag informs us, the present Ministers are in a deep Consumption, and that they are given over by their Physicians.

April 24. The Office of Ordinance have received Orders to get ready 20,000 Sets of new Arms with all Expedition. As there are always Arms in the Tower for 60,000 Men at a Minute's Warning, and all the Arms of the reduced and disbanded Regiments at the End of the last War are still at Hand, this Order occasions much Speculation.

If the Want of Spirit should permit the French to possess themselves of Corsica, our Mediterranean Trade will be ruined; and as our American Trade is more than half lost already, it seems probable that this unhappy Kingdom may be reduced to the Situation it was a Thousand Years ago, when it had no Trade by Sea, other than what was carried on in small coasting Vessels.

May 4. A Letter from Constantinople says, "Advice being received that a neighbouring Power to Poland had assembled an Army of 40,000 Men upon the Frontiers, the Porto demanded of the Minister from that Crown, with what View his Court has posted that Army; and as he has not given Satisfaction on the Subject, it is signified to him that he must give a positive Answer, since it greatly behoves the Grand Signior to know what to do in that Respect."

The Privy Council, which was to have been held on Friday, at St. James's, was postponed 'til this Day, which causes various Speculations.

We hear that Orders are given to all the principal Officers of each Department of S——e, not to be absent from Town this Week, on any Account whatsoever.

The following is a most circumstantial Account of the Proceedings at the Half-Moon Tavern, Yesterday, mentioned in our last. Edward Bond, Esq; was chosen Chairman. A Request for a Common Hall was agreed to, and immediately signed. About 12 o'Clock, the Chairman, attended by the whole Meeting, waited on the Lord Mayor, at the Mansion-House, to request his Lordship to call, as soon as possible, a Common Hall, in order to take the Sense of the Livery of London, on the Measures proper to be pursued by them under the present most alarming Situation of Affairs.——His Lordship received them with great Politeness; observed that the Request of so respectable a Part of the Livery of London demanded his most serious Attention; and that though there might be no President to justify him in complying with this Request of the Livery; yet, as it was a Matter of some Doubt, whether the Peculiarity of our present Circumstances would not justify the Peculiarity of the Measure, his Lordship resolved to take the Opinion of the Common Council on this important Point; and declared, that their Determination would be of great Weight with him; and it is said that a Common Council will be summoned for Friday next.

Upon calling up the Names on Monday Night, at the Ship Tavern, at Ratcliffe Cross, it appeared that 1424 Freeholders had then signed the Petition.

A counter Petition is preparing by the M------y, as a Kind of Remonstrance against the Mile-End Proceedings, and which is to be hawked round the Country to be signed. Many Bets are depending, and some very Considerable ones, that Twenty Names are not subscribed to it.

Mr. Serjeant Glynn has declared his Approbation of every Measure taken by the Freeholders of the County of Middlesex in the depending Petition, and fully approves of every Sentence of it, and will present it, so that all Reports to the contrary are false.

To the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Middlesex.

GENTLEMEN,

THE manly Perseverance, with the calm, but undaunted Spirit of your Conduct, this Day, in Support of the Freedom of Election, has crowned the just Expectations of the Public, and will for ever endear you to your Countrymen. The Honour I receive in being the Fourth Time elected your Representative to the great Council of the Nation, affects me in the most sensible Manner. My Gratitude shall appear in a Way worthy of such Constituents, worthy of such a Cause. Animated by your Example, and warmed, like you, with the holy Flames of Freedom, I shall, on every great Occasion, devote myself to the Good of the People, and Preservation of public Liberty. In this Cause I will act under your Auspices to the last Moment of my Life, fearless of Danger in Behalf of a Nation, which knows the inestimable Value of the fundamental Rights and Liberties of the Body of this People, and has frequently cemented them with the Blood of her heroic Sons, of her truest Patriots.

If any further Violence should frustrate the Effects of this Day's Proceedings, your Steadiness, Gentlemen, in Support of a Free Election, must, at last succeed. The Kingdom is too jealous of its noble Privileges, and is inspired with too active Courage, to surrender the Right to the present, or any future Administration, or meanly acquiesce in being deprived of it. When the British Constitution preserves its ancient Form or Spirit, you will have always in the House of Commons a Representative of your own voluntary Choice. You have withstood the various Attacks of a dangerous Ministry, and your vigorous Defence of your just Claims has rendered all their Attempts fruitless. Every Act of Power and Artifice of Corruption have hitherto failed against your steady Virtue. The same Conduct regularly pursued, must, in the End, ensure you Success. The Privilege of this free Nation will be restored and confirmed. You will be reverenced as the Patrons of our Rights, and every future Age will pay to you the grateful Tribute, that the Liberty of England, in a most essential Point, was secured against the repeated Attacks of ministerial Deſpotiſm, by the Perſeverance, Firmneſs, and Fortitude of the Freeholders of Middleſex.

I ſhall always remain, GENTLEMEN,
Your grateful and obedient humble Servant,

King's-Bench Priſon,
Thurſday Night,
April 13. JOHN WILKES.

To the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Middleſex.

GENTLEMEN,

WARMLY impreſt with the Goodneſs of my Friends, I mean to return Thanks, in Perſon, to thoſe who honoured me with their Support and Appearance at Brentford the Day of Election; but I cannot defer this public and ſincere Acknowledgement of ſo ſingular a Favour.

My grateful Thanks are likewiſe due to ſuch Freeholders of Middleſex as were prevented by an Impreſſion of repeated Outrage, from carrying their good Intenſions towards me into Execution, and I muſt lament with them, that Eleven Hundred Forty three Votes, out of above Four Thouſand, ſhould arrogate a Right of pronouncing the comprehenſive Senſe of the County of Middleſex.

You have many of you, Gentlemen, endeavoured to reſcue your Country from Diſtraction and Diſorder, it ſhall be my unalterable Study to promote its Peace, Honour, and Proſperity.

I am, with the utmoſt Reſpect,
Your much obliged and faithful humble Servant,

South Audley-Street,
April 18. HENRY LAWES LUTTRELL.

To the PRINTER.

COLONEL LUTTRELL, in his Addreſs to the Freeholders of Middleſex, laments that the 1143 Freeholders, who voted for Mr. Wilkes, ſhould be conſidered as the Senſe of the County: But have not the Freeholders greater Reaſon to lament, that 296 of his ——— Votes ſhould be conſidered as the Senſe of the County?

BOSTON, June 19.

Saturday laſt ended the Trial of the Perſons charged with the Murder of Lieut. Panton, when a Decree was given in, Juſtifiable Homicide, and the Priſoners ſet at Liberty.

The ſame Day the Sheriff of the County went on board his Majeſty's Ship Roſe, and arreſted Mr. Peacock, a Midſhipman on board ſaid Ship, in an Action of Damages, for firing upon, and wounding in the Arm, one of the Acceſſaries charged with the Murder of Lieut. Panton, to which Mr. Peacock gave Bail in the Sum of 300l. Lawful Money.

By Captain Wylie from Hiſpaniola, we hear, that the Diſturbances at that Iſland have entirely ſubſided.

We hear that Mr. Otis has lately received a very polite Letter from the celebrated Mrs. Macaulay, the great Patroneſs of Liberty in England, with a Copy of her Hiſtory elegantly bound: This Lady is Siſter to John Sawbridge, Eſq; Member for Hythe in Kent, and Chairman of the Supporters of the Bill of Rights.

We hear from Providence, that on the 18th of May laſt, in the Evening, a great Number of People riotouſly aſſembled in that Town; and violently ſeized Jeſſe Saville, a Tideſman belonging to the Cuſtom-Houſe of the ſaid Port, who was then attending his Duty there, and having gagged and put him in a Wheelbarrow, almoſt ſtrangled, they carried him to a Wharf, where they threatened to drown him if he made the leaſt Noiſe; tied a Handkerchief round his Face, cut his Cloaths to Pieces, ſtripped him naked, covered him from Head to Foot with Turpentine and Feathers, bound him Hands and Feet, threw Dirt in his Face, and repeatedly beat him with their Fiſts and Sticks, then threw him down on the Pavements, cut his Face, and bruiſed his Body in a moſt barbarous Manner; during which inhuman Treatment, which laſted an Hour and an Half, he was near expiring, and now lies dangerouſly ill. The Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, have promiſed a Reward of 50l. Sterling, to be paid upon the Conviction of any of them.

NEW-YORK, June 26.

Capt. Henderſon from Baltimore, in Maryland, arrived at Cadiz the 25th of April; and Capt. Auld from Philadelphia, was bound from Cadiz for Genoa.

Tueſday ſail'd for London, the Ship Dutcheſs of Gordon, Capt. Winn, in whom went Paſſengers, her Grace the Dutcheſs of Gordon, the Lady of his Excellency Sir Henry Moore, Col. Staats Morris, Maſter William Gage, Son of his Excellency the General, Miſs Ritchie Franks, Miſs Burges, Miſs Conor, Capt. Davis, of the Royal Artillery, Capt. Stanton, and about Twenty other Paſſengers.

Yeſterday Major Rogers arrived here from Montreal.

Extract from General Orders, New-York, May 8, 1769.

The Court is of Opinion, That Major Robert Rogers is not guilty of any one of the Articles laid to his Charge; and therefore doth acquit him of the ſame.

His Majeſty is pleaſed to approve the Opinion of the Court, in acquitting the ſaid Major Robert Rogers of each of the ſaid Articles of Charge, and to order that he be releaſed from his Confinement.

At the ſame Time it appears to his Majeſty, that there was great Reaſon to ſuſpect the ſaid Major Robert Rogers entertaining an improper and dangerous Correſpondence; which Suſpicion, the Account afterwards given of his meditating an Eſcape, tended to confirm.

RICHARD MAITLAND, D. A. G.

ANNAPOLIS, July 6.

By particular Deſire, we inſert the following, from a late New-York Paper.

AS the Meaſures entered into by the Merchants of Boſton, and this City, (and lately adopted by the Gentlemen of Philadelphia,) to reſtrict the Importation of Goods from Great-Britain, until the Act impoſing Duties on Paper, Glaſs, &c. ſhall be repealed; appear of all legal Means the beſt calculated to effect this ſalutary Purpoſe: It muſt afford the higheſt Satisfaction to every Friend to Freedom, and our excellent Conſtitution, to hear that they are cloſely and generally adher'd to; as the very Exiſtence of American Liberty depends on the ſteady Proſecution of theſe Meaſures, it is of the laſt Importance to ſecure them from a Failure. Each Individual may render his Country a Service in this Reſpect, by endeavouring to diſcountenance, or prevent, all private Infractions of the Agreement: Theſe are what we have to guard againſt with the utmoſt Vigilance, for few Men (however baſe and ſordid ſome are) would be hardy enough to ſtand forth to public View, and openly expoſe themſelves to the Contempt and Abhorence of their Fellow Citizens, when Numbers might be tempted to raiſe their Fortune on the Ruins of their Country, provided there was a Probability of attaining this End without injuring their Characters.

In Juſtice to the Public, we conceive we cannot diſcharge the Truſt repoſed in us as a Committee to inſpect and inquire into the Importation of Goods, without informing them that Alexander Robertſon, has, contrary to the Spirit of ſaid Agreement, order'd ſundry Goods from Philadelphia, and has attempted to introduce them into this City, but was prevehted by the Patriotic Conduct of a Gentleman in the Jerſies, who on examining the Packages, and finding they contained Goods prohibited by the Agreement, gave Intelligence accordingly: Theſe Circumſtances without a Comment, are ſubmitted to the Conſideration of the Public. The Reaſon Mr. Robertſon alledges in Vindication of this imprudent Step is, that, "as the Phi-"ladelphians had acceded to the Agreement, he "thought himſelf at Liberty to purchaſe Goods from "them;" but finding the Public diſpleaſed with his Conduct, he immediately gave an Order for ſending the Goods back again to Philadelphia.

ADVERTISEMENT,

Of great Importance to the Public.

THE ſpecious Reaſon aſſigned by Alexander Robertſon, in Mr. Gaine's laſt Paper, relative to his attempting to introduce into this City, certain Goods therein mentioned, contrary to the Agreement ſubſcribed by the Merchants, Traders and Mechanics of this City, "That as the Philadelphians had acceded "to the ſaid Agreement, he thought himſelf at Liber-"to purchaſe Goods from them; but finding the Pub-"lic diſpleaſed with his Conduct, he immediately "gave an Order for ſending them back again to Phila-"delphia;" proves to have been calculated only to amuſe, the better to carry his dark Deſigns into Execution.—As it appears clearly, that notwithſtanding his pretended inoffenſive Intentions and ſeeming great Penitence and Contrition, for (as he would have had it believed) his inadvertent Tranſgreſſion; he the ſaid Alexander Robertſon, not having the Love of his Country at Heart, but being inſtigated by the ſordid Views of a little paltry Gain, hath moſt notoriouſly and wilfully committed a high Crime and Miſdemeanor againſt the Liberties of the People of this City in particular, and of the American Colonies in general.—For inſtead of ſending the Goods back again to Philadelphia, it was diſcovered, and afterwards confirmed by his own Confeſſion, that an arrant Piece of Fraud had been by him premeditated to have been impoſed on the reſpectable Public—As the Driver of the Stage Waggon, one Skilman, by the Connivance and Approbation of him the ſaid Alexander Robertſon, had emptied the Caſks, and carried them back to Philadelphia without the Goods, which were put into Bags and left in the Cellar at the Ferry Houſe, in order afterwards to be privately and clandeſtinely introduced into this City.—And ſo ſtrenuouſly did he, the ſaid Robertſon deny, when firſt taxed with his being privy to ſo dirty a Trick, that he offered to purge himſelf by Oath; but Circumſtances appearing ſo very ſtrong againſt him, and his Fears beginning to be alarmed for the Conſequences which might enſue; he was prevailed upon by a Gentleman to confeſs the Truth, as the beſt Apology he could make for an Offence of ſo high and daring a Nature; and although he is too contemptible to be the Object of that heavy Reſentment, to which one in a higher Sphere of Life would probably and deſervedly have been ſubjected; yet he ought not to eſcape quite unnoticed—and it is not doubted but that all Ranks and Degrees amongſt us, both of Men and Women, will unite in all legal Means to ſhew their juſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of ſuch ſcandalous Practices, that they will avoid any Connections and all Intercourſe with him, treat him on all Occaſions with the Contempt he deſerves, regard him in the odious Light of an Enemy to his Country, and by every other juſtifiable Means in their Power, deter others from following his infamous Example.

THE FULLING-MILL at the Mouth of Patuxent River, is now provided with a good Fuller, and ready for Work; such as fulling, dying and pressing all Sorts of Clothes and Worsted Stuffs, scarlet and blue excepted, unless dyed before sent to the Mill.—As the insupportable Inconvenience attending the Collection of a Number of small Debts, from various distant Parts of the County, must be obvious to every one; and as this expensive Undertaking was begun and prosecuted, principally to encourage the Manufacture of Woollen Country-Cloth, at a Time when the oppressive Measures, lately adopted and pursued by the Mother-Country, render it indispensably necessary, for our own Well-being, that every Individual shou'd manufacture as much as in his Power lies.—It is hoped that no Offence will be given if the Proprietors desire the Money for fulling, &c. to be sent by the Person who is to receive the Cloth, as it is absolutely necessary to support the Work.——All Persons who will favour me with their Cloth, may depend on having it finished off in the best Manner, and with all possible Dispatch; and to prevent Mistakes the Owner of every Piece of Cloth, is requested to put the initial Letters of his or her Name in the Web.

PROPOSALS

FOR CONTINUING AND IMPROVING

THE

AND

UNIVERSAL ADVERTISER.

(At the moderate Price of Ten Shillings per Annum)

By WILLIAM GODDARD.

(To be embellished with Copper Plates, which, if sold separate, could not be afforded for the Price of a Year's CHRONICLE.)

THE Printer of the PENNSYLVANIA CHRONICLE, &c. having instituted his Paper with a View of serving the Public, (as well as to obtain for himself such moderate Subsistence as one of his Profession has a Right to expect) is very desirous to extend its Utility—and as a Proof of his Sincerity, he proposes now to make some considerable Improvements, which he hopes will merit the Attention and Encouragement of the Public—To this End he has greatly enlarged his Correspondence in Europe, and to the numerous Daily and Weekly News-Papers, has ordered an additional constant Supply of the best Political Pamphlets, Register, Reviews, and every other temporary Production that may enable him to prosecute his Design with Credit to himself and Satisfaction to his Subscribers.—Several Gentlemen of great Learning and Ingenuity, in this and the neighbouring Provinces, have promised to lend their Assistance, so that there may not be wanting some original Productions, which may exhibit agreeable Specimens of American Humour and Genius.—The Paper will thus become not only a Register of the best Intelligence (in which no Article, Foreign or Domestic, worthy the Public Notice, will be omitted) but a Repository of ingenious and valuable Literature, in prose and Verse;—and to incite Persons to preserve their Papers, which will grow into a Family Library of Entertainment and Instruction, he intends printing them in a very handsome Quarto, on a good fair Paper, with a new and beautiful Elzevir Type, to be embellished annually with Two elegant Copper Plates, (which are already contracted for) to be executed by the most ingenious Artists; one to serve for a Frontispiece, and the other to close the Volume. A neat Title, and a copious and a useful Index will likewise be added.

The extraordinary Expences that the Printer must necessarily incur, by providing these Improvements, will require further Encouragement, and induce him, whilst he is returning Thanks to his present generous Subscribers, to solicit the Favour of others, as every one must be sensible from so small a Price as Ten Shillings a Year, and the constant and incidental Expence of a Press, how small a Profit will remain to the Printer. Nor can the Advance of Five Shillings, for the First Half Year, which he requests from every Subscriber, both new and old, be looked upon as unseasonable, on the present improved and expensive Plan, which will require an immediate Supply.

The constant Attention the Printer has always shewn to gratify the Public, the open and impartial Manner in which he has managed his Press, unbiasted by Party, the free Access every Man has to it in private Disputes, without Prejudice or Affection to either Side, may, he hopes, entitle him to some Degree of Merit in his Business, and consequently to those Favours of the Public, which he will be always equally ready to acknowledge and studious to deserve.

Subscriptions are taken in by the Printer, at his Office in Market-Street, and by many Gentlemen in different Parts of America, (particularly by most of the Postmasters, Booksellers, and Printers) in whose Hands Subscription Papers will be left; and the Printer would be much obliged to any of his old Friends and Customers for their good Offices towards the future Success of his Undertaking.

N. B. The greatest Attention will be paid to the regular Dispatch and Delivery of the Papers in Town and Country.

RAN away, on the 31st of May, from the Subscriber's Plantation, in Synapuxen Neck, in Worcester County, a Servant Man named CON ROURKE, born in the West of Ireland, he is a thick well set Fellow, about 5 Feet 8 or 10 Inches high, pitted with the Small-Pox, wears his own short thin straight sandy coloured Hair, about 30 Years of Age and has very little of the Brogue: Had on, and took with him, when he went away, an old coarse blue fly Coat, and Jacket, the back Parts of the Jacket are of a different Colour, a Pair of half worn Leather Breeches, Two coarse Country-made Shirts, One of which is striped, the other Check, One Pair of ditto Trousers, a brown Cut Wig, which he sometimes wore over his Hair, and a new Felt Hat; he also took with him a large Shovel and Spade in a Wallet, and probably may pass for a Banker and Ditcher. As he has often talked about St. Mary's County, perhaps he may have gone that Way.

Whoever secures the said Servant, so that he may have him again, shall receive Fifty Shillings; and, if brought home, reasonable Charges, paid by

(w4) JAMES ROWND.
